DETAILED ACTION

Election of Species

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: I. a paperboard press molded container; II. an injection molded plastic container.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Restriction

2. If Group I above is elected, the following restriction requirement is also required. It is noted that claims 33-48 read only upon a plastic container and are independent with respect to the press molding method set forth in the Group II claims below.

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-32, 49-135 and 156-165, drawn to a container and blank, classified in class 229, subclass 406.

II. Claims 136-155 and 166-188, drawn to a method of making a container, classified in class 264, subclass unknown.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

4. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product can be made by another and materially different process. For example, the container of claims 1-32, 49-135 and 156-165 could be made by forming or cutting the blank within the die at the same time as the blank is pressed within the die as opposed to claims 136-155 which require transfer of the blank to a die and controlling the orientation during transfer. Also, the container of claims 1-32, 49-135 and 156-165 could be made by press forming the blank into a container having a diameter equal to the diameter of the blank by thinning and reforming the paperboard material during pressing and limiting the depth of the container, i.e. by forming a very shallow container as opposed to claims 166-188 which requires the step of press forming the container to have a smaller diameter than the diameter of the blank.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each Group is not required for the other Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
